

The First Seminar of the Project of the History of Human Ecology in the North: “Seminar on ISO and 14C dating”,

Institute of Archaeology, University of Oxford, Oxford, UK. 3rd to 4th July 2013.

Day 1:

- 1) Prof. Hirofumi Kato (Hokkaido University)

“Diversity in the dietary habits of Jomon hunting-gathering-fishing societies”

- 2) Prof. Minoru Yoneda (University of Tokyo)

"Diversity in the dietary habits of Jomon hunting-gathering-fishing societies".

- 3) Prof. Julia LEE-THORP (University of Oxford )

"Isotope approaches to diet, mobility and territory amongst coastal hunter-gatherers in South Africa"

- 4) Dr. Rick SHULTING (University of Oxford)

"An overview of hunter-gatherer dietary diversity in Europe".

DAY 2:

- 1) Prof. Chirs RAMSEY (University of Oxford)

"Bayesian analysis of radiocarbon dates".

- 2) Dr. Hiromasa OZAKI (University of Tokyo)

"Calibration of radiocarbon dates in the Japanese archipelago"

- 3) Dr. Tadayuki OMORI (University of Tokyo)

"Evaluating the radiocarbon chronology & spacial distribution of the Middle Jomon in eastern Japan".