

Day 1 (3rd Dec) JSPS Sponsored Workshop		Day 2 (4th Dec) JSPS Sponsored Workshop
9.00–9.10	Welcome and Intro
9.10 – 9.30	Hirofumi KATO (Hokkaido University): Formation process of Ainu ethnicity and their bear cult	Kate Britton (Isotopes and animal migration)
9.40 – 10.00	David Anderson (University of Aberdeen): The Arctic Domus Project	Ardern Hulme-Beaman (University of Aberdeen): The Pacific rat and Austronesian migration)
	Keith Dobney (University of Aberdeen): The pig & dog domestication projects	Alex Trinks (Durham University and University of Aberdeen: Rats, Mice & geckos as proxies for human dispersal in Oceania)
10.10–10.30		COFFEE
10.40–11.30	COFFEE	Julie Daujat (Mesopotamian Fallow deer)
11.30–11.50	Takao SATO (Keio University): Dogs and Jomon People
	Rin OHNISHI (Keio University): Dog remains from Northern Hokkaido Island (tentative title)	Ellen McManus (Isotopes and the Alaska project)
12.00–12.20	Yaroslav Kuzmin (Russian Academy of Sciences): The earliest finds of domestic dog in Siberia and the Russian Far East: issues of morphology and age	Ren IWANAMI (PhD student, Hokkaido University): Excavation situation of pinniped in Rebun island and analysis of cut mark
12.30–12.50		LUNCH
13.00–14.00	LUNCH	Takumi TSUTAYA (Stable isotope analysis on human and dog diets in the Okhotsk culture.)
	Masaki EDA (Hokkaido University): The history of domestic birds in the East Asia.
14.00–14.20	Linus Girdland-Flink (University of Aberdeen): Domestication genes)
14.30–14.50	Ophelie Lebrasseur (Durham University): Dogs & chickens as proxies for human dispersal in Oceania
15.00–15.20	TEA
15.30–16.10	Allowen Evin (University of Aberdeen & Natural History Museum, Paris): Morphometrics and domestication
16.10–16.30	Anna Linderholm (aDNA and Pig Dispersal)
16.40–17.00			